SMES 2011 REGISTERS 70% SPACE RESERVATION AND DELIVERS ENDLESS EXHIBITOR FACILITIES

The Institute for Near East and Gulf Military Analysis – INEGMA is proud to announce a 70% reservation of the exhibiting space at the second edition of the Security Middle East Show – SMES to take place on 7-9 April, 2011 at BIEL, Beirut, Lebanon.

This year's SMES is offering all its exhibitors exclusive facilities which include stand contracting, shipping services and accommodation packages to help them benefit the most from this pioneer event. (for more information please log on to our website www.smesbeirut.com).

SMES which is patroned by the Lebanese Prime Minister HE Saad El Hariri, is promised to be well-attended especially with official invitations being made this year to delegations and decision –makers from at least 30 countries from around the world.

Exhibitors will have the chance to meet up with senior security officials from Asian, European, African and American countries.

SMES will kick-off with a conference on the first day of the show, at the BIEL Pavillon. The conference will address all the latest in homeland security, infrastructure security, critical structure security, border control and counter terrorism methods in the Middle East and world-wide.

The Lebanese Armed Forces - LAF and Internal Security Forces - ISF will actively contribute to SMES as well through exciting live demonstrations including shows by the air assault regiment and sea commandos regiment on the second day, and ISF special assault forces on the third day.

These highly anticipated features will all be covered by SMES media partners, namely Janes, MTV - Lebanon and SDArabia.com as the official online media partner, aside of 17 other local and international magazines, websites, and directories.

SMES 2011 conference and exhibition will mark itself as a must- see biennial event in the Middle East region building on the latest security solutions it continues to provide each edition.

Book your stand NOW and take part of the limited exhibiting space.

(Further details of the agenda and speakers of the conference will be posted on our website soon; www.smesbeirut.com)
